

“Wanda Queen Retires From Public Service Telephone Company”

Reynolds, GA – With over 20 years of service, Wanda Queen retired from Public Service Telephone Company. In recognition of Wanda’s retirement, a special breakfast was given on Thursday, March 24, 2016. In attendance were her husband Earl, her daughter and son-in-law, Angela and Keith Roberts, her son and daughter-in-law, Kevin and Melissa Queen, and grandson Alex. In honor of her retirement, Wanda was presented with a watch that included an engraved inscription of her time of service.

After retirement, Wanda plans to travel and spend time with her family. Public Service wishes Wanda the very best in her retirement!

- END -